

From the Garden to Jerusalem:
A Christian Mandate to Engage with the Urban Environment

Presenter: Eric O. Jacobsen
Followed by public discussion

Thursday evening, March 5, 2009
6:30-7:00 pm – Gathering
7:00-8:30 – Lecture and Discussion

Urban Ecology Center
1500 E Park Place
Milwaukee WI 53211

Sponsored by: St. Mark's Episcopal Church and
Urban Ecology Center

Eric O. Jacobsen is senior pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Tacoma, WA and author of Sidewalks in the Kingdom: New Urbanism and the Christian Faith. He has written extensively on the intersection between faith and urban planning and has spoken at national conferences for the AIA, APA and the CNU. He has his Ph.D. in Theology and Culture from Fuller Theological Seminary and is a member of the Congress for the New Urbanism.

Open to the public
Registration not required but RSVP requested.
RSVP to theboylands@gmail.com

Questions regarding this event should be directed to:

Joyce Tang Boyland
Phone: (414) 964-3227
Email: jtangb@gmail.com