

Is this the right place for Madison's Amtrak station?

How would you feel if you got dropped off here . . . ?

This is about where the platform and depot would be located.

Yes, there is a parking garage. But, the airport concourse is two blocks away ($> 670'$),

if there were blocks . . .

You could easily miss the train if you head over for a cup of coffee.

There are rental cars available.

You, probably, have never rented a car after riding a train, but you might need one if the Madison Amtrak is at the airport.

For some, unknown reason.

But don't try to walk or ride a bike to the Madison Airport Amtrak station.

You won't make it.
