Probable Cause:

I am a City of Milwaukee law enforcement officer and I base this complaint upon my review of official Milwaukee Police Department incident reports, which are of the kind I have used in the past and found to be truthful and reliable and which I know are prepared in the ordinary and regular course of business. Said reports indicate the following:

On April 20th, 2018, at approximately 10:30pm, the defendant, Demetrius Blakes, was at 2008 W Center, City of Milwaukee, Milwaukee County, WI. At that location is a gas station. While at that location, the defendant encountered the victim, CK. The two briefly spoke, then engaged in a physical fight involving fists. During that fight, the defendant pulled out a handgun and fired at CK, striking him in the abdomen. The victim then went to the trunk of his car and retrieved a shotgun at which point the defendant fled the scene. The defendant was identified in a photo array by CK as well as CR, who was there with the victim CK. The incident was also captured on surveillance video from the gas station.

Complainant has also reviewed CCAP records, relating to Milwaukee County Case 2006CF001639 which reveal that the above-named Defendant Demetrius Blakes was convicted of Burglary-Building or Dwelling, a Class F felony, on May 26th, 2006. That conviction is of record. Those documents reveal that Blakes was sentenced to 30 months probation on July 10th, 2006. C copy of a certified record of conviction is attached.
