Speaker Vos Announces New Communications Director

Madison – Speaker Robin Vos today announced the appointment of Luke Wolff as his communications director. Wolff will join Speaker Vos’s Capitol staff and will serve as head of a communication team that will facilitate outreach to statewide, capitol, and district news outlets. Wolff joins the Speaker’s office after serving as the Communications Director of the Republican Party of Iowa.

“I am excited to welcome Luke to Wisconsin,” said Speaker Vos. “His communications and congressional experience will make a valuable addition to our team.”

Prior to his post at the Republican Party of Iowa, Mr. Wolff served as a Press Assistant to Congressman Darin LaHood (IL-16). Wolff attended the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and is originally from the Chicago suburbs. He has spent time in Oneida County where his family has property in Three Lakes.

“I am honored to join Speaker Vos’s office and work with his staff to serve the people of Wisconsin and the 33rd Assembly district,” said Wolff. “I am excited to be in the great state of Wisconsin and am ready to get to work.”
