Colliers | Wisconsin Announces Maggie Blair's Promotion to Partner

Colliers | Wisconsin is pleased to announce the promotion of Maggie Blair to Partner, recognizing her outstanding leadership and significant contributions to the firm. As the Director of Marketing and Research, Maggie has played a pivotal role in driving growth, innovation and client success across the region.

Since joining Colliers | Wisconsin, Maggie has demonstrated expertise in business development, marketing and market trend analysis, firmly establishing her team as a critical resource for clients. Under her leadership, the team has delivered strategic insights and innovative solutions that have elevated the firm's reputation and impact. Throughout the company her process innovations have streamlined workflows and enhanced client experience, further solidifying Colliers | Wisconsin as an industry leader.

"I couldn't be more excited for Maggie. She has consistently brought immense value to both our internal teams and directly to our clients. She is extremely bright, has a tireless work ethic and reinforces the culture and values of our firm with ease.", said Lyle Landowski, President & CEO of Colliers | Wisconsin.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Maggie is deeply committed to expanding opportunities within the commercial real estate industry. In 2021, she was integral in launching Accelerate CRE, a successful high school internship program, providing students from backgrounds underrepresented in real estate with valuable industry exposure and fostering the next generation of real estate professionals.
