

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Data Strategist Anthony Virgilio Joins EUA

Milwaukee, 3/10/2025 — EUA is excited to announce the addition of Anthony Virgilio, data strategist. Anthony will collaborate with teams firmwide to continue improving how we integrate data-driven approaches to project planning and execution.

“Anthony’s actionable insights will help EUA elevate project outcomes, enhance client experiences and continue to drive innovative design solutions,” says President Kristin Dufek.

Based in Milwaukee, Anthony will work with teams across our entire firm to discern industry and market conditions, allowing us to provide strategic recommendations for clients nationwide. His responsibilities will include working as a part of our project teams to translate data into design action. He will be actively support our clients’ needs by identifying what data can best inform decision-making.

Initially, Anthony will work on developing a firmwide data strategy in conjunction with the studio and practice leadership teams. While the strategy is being developed, he will meet with EUA colleagues across the studios to understand and support more immediate data needs and opportunities. Once the strategy is defined, Anthony will execute ongoing data use cases at the firm, create and deploy business intelligence solutions for internal teams and eventually consult on client data opportunities.

“I am thrilled to join this smart, welcoming and passionate group at EUA,” says Anthony. “The amazing, thoughtful work EUA delivers in and to communities is well known. And I’m learning that the people behind the work are just as impressive as they are kind. Their eagerness to lean into data and artificial intelligence is both exciting and inspiring. I can’t wait to continue to build the data culture at EUA.”
