

Celebrate Spring with an Evening of Music & Art at the Charles Allis Art Museum

Spring Into the Allis: A Night of Music & Art
Friday, April 18, 2025 | 7:00–9:00 PM

Milwaukee, WI – The Charles Allis Art Museum invites the public to “Spring Into the Allis,” a one-of-a-kind musical and cultural experience on Friday, April 18, 2025, from 7:00 to 9:00 PM. This special evening celebrates the beauty of spring through classical music, visual art, and Milwaukee’s historic charm.

Set in the museum’s breathtaking Great Hall—a Tudor-style space with warm wood paneling and elegant detailing—guests will be treated to a live performance by the internationally acclaimed Fulton Chamber Players. Featuring works by Vivaldi, Strauss, and other classical masters, this immersive concert will showcase the artistry of Addison Teng and Paul Hauer (violin) and Amy Hess (viola).

Before the concert, guests are invited to enjoy a free guided tour with the museum’s Collections Manager at 6:00 PM, and doors open to the great hall at 6:15 PM. Following the performance, a reception will allow attendees to meet the musicians, enjoy refreshments, and explore the museum’s exhibitions, including its renowned permanent collection and new seasonal displays.

“We are thrilled to bring this intimate and immersive experience to the East Side,” says Interim Executive Director Marquayla Ellison. “This event is more than a concert—it’s an invitation to celebrate the season, support the arts, and engage with one of Milwaukee’s cultural gems.”

Additional Event Highlights:

- Locally loved food truck Big E’s Epic Eats will be on-site, offering comfort food favorites like smash burgers, pickle fries, and grilled cheese (last call for orders at 8:15 PM).
- Non-alcoholic beverages available for purchase in the Great Hall throughout the evening.
- Attendees are welcome to explore the museum’s galleries and historic mansion, with food and drink permitted only in designated areas.

Program Highlights:

- Concerto for Two Violins – Antonio Vivaldi
- Duo for Violin and Viola – Leopold Jansa
- String Trio in D Minor – Robert Fuchs
- The Beautiful Blue Danube – Johann Strauss II

About the Fulton Chamber Players:

Founded in 2022, the Fulton Chamber Players have quickly established a reputation for excellence, performing internationally and engaging with audiences of all ages. Their mission includes transforming music education and bridging the gap between student musicians and professional careers.

Tickets:

Advance tickets are available now via MKETIX.

General Admission: $20 (until April 17)

Day-of Admission: $25 (April 18)

Venue:

Charles Allis Art Museum

1801 N Prospect Ave, Milwaukee, WI 53202

Parking is available on nearby streets and at our partner lot behind CVS (1650 N. Farwell Ave). Please avoid parking near the store entrance.

Media Inquiries, Photos, or Interview Requests:

Contact: info@charlesallis.org

Follow us on Facebook for updates: facebook.com/share/16RwgeAXuH

Event details: www.charlesallis.org/springconcert

Experience the season. Explore the arts.

Spring Into the Allis – Friday, April 18. Don't miss it.