FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Libertarian Party of Wisconsin Annual Convention April 25-27

The Libertarian Party of Wisconsin (LPWI) will be holding their annual convention on April 25th through the 27th at Treehaven UW Stevens Point. This year, the LPWI is proud to host Jenn Gray for a workshop on Saturday, April 26th. In addition to her work on Libertarian causes and campaigns, Jenn was the host of the "Leading Liberty" podcast where she discussed marketing and communications for liberty-minded professionals.

The LPWI will also be electing the next Executive Committee to a two year term. The ExComm has led the LPWI through tough and challenging times and are looking to continue to lead Wisconsin Libertarians into the unknown over the next couple of years.

This event promises to be a vital gathering of like-minded individuals, advocates, and activists dedicated to promoting freedom, individual rights, and limited government. This convention serves as an essential opportunity for members to contribute their ideas, discuss challenges facing the state, and build a stronger, more united LPWI.
