LPWI Convention Livestream

The Libertarian Party of Wisconsin (LPWI) will be livestreaming their convention this weekend from Treehaven UW-Stevens Point. The LPWI invites anyone, from media members to ordinary citizens, who would like to see more liberty and individual freedom in both Wisconsin and the United States to tune in to the stream, beginning at 9am, Saturday April 26.

The stream can be accessed from the LPWI website, LPWI.org/

If you have ever wondered who Wisconsin Libertarians are, what they stand for, or what Libertarianism is in Wisconsin, you can find out through the stream. If you are a disillusioned Democrat or Republican, fed up with the disharmony and bureaucratic authoritarianism plaguing the national and state parties, the LPWI invites you to check out the stream and see that there is another option for you.

With the election of the new officers, awards granted for past performance, and presentations from prominent Libertarians and Libertarian causes, you can watch in real time the LPWI chart their course for the next two years and beyond.

If you have any questions about the LPWI or the convention, please reach out via email; presslpwi@gmail.com.

"If you are not free to choose wrongly and irresponsibly, you are not free at all." - Jacob G. Hornberger
