Wisconsin Special Project Award Winner presents:

(W)here in the World

Saturday, May 31st @ 7pm // Sunday, June 1st @ 3pm
2025

UWM Mainstage Theatre- Milwaukee, WI

Milwaukee, WI- Taiko drumming, Flamenco, West African dance and percussion, Native American Hoop Dancing - all in just one performance. (W)here in the World takes the stage this spring, uniting music and dance traditions from around the world!

The festival- also known as Wherefest- was created to improve visibility for traditional dance forms and create a unique cultural experience for Milwaukeeans of all ages. This exciting evening of diverse dance styles is conceived by the Milwaukee-based nonprofit Studio K Flamenco. Thanks to the Wisconsin Special Projects Award funded by Ruth Arts, (W)here in the World will unite dance artists of different traditions on stage delivering an explosive performance for all.

Performances will be held at the UWM Mainstage Theatre- Saturday, May 31st at 7pm and Sunday, June 1st at 3pm. (W)here in the World is a show for all ages and the run time is 75 minutes with no intermission. Tickets start at $15. For additional ticket information VISIT.
