Milwaukee Public Market Launches Fourth Riverwalk Commons Concert Series on June 3

Milwaukee, Wisconsin – May 28, 2025 – The Milwaukee Public Market is excited to announce the return of its Riverwalk Commons Concert Series, presented by Beer Capitol Distributing, now in its fourth consecutive year. Designed to bring neighbors and visitors together in one of the city's most unique outdoor venues, this free summer concert series celebrates local music, food, and community. The 2025 season kicks off on Tuesday, June 3, with a special series launch event featuring live music from The Panoptics, pop-up vendors, and giveaways.

Concerts are held on select Tuesday evenings, with the exception of a special Friday night performance on June 13. This concert aligns with Milwaukee Public Market's role as co-host of the 12th International Public Markets Conference.

Each concert runs from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., with a pre-show Happy Hour beginning at 5:00 p.m., offering drink specials from the Milwaukee Public Market's Shipping Container Bar and Draft & Vessel's vintage RK'd van, which also features a retro arcade. Attendees can enjoy rotating food truck options from local favorites like Frida's Cocina, Rosemob Grill and Cocina Filipina.

Once an underutilized parcel beneath the I-794 freeway, Riverwalk Commons, located at 423 N. Water Street, has been transformed into an active public space featuring outdoor pickleball courts, green spaces, and free neighborhood events. Proceeds from bar sales during events directly support ongoing improvements and activations within the space.

Milwaukee Public Market would like to thank Riverwalk Commons Concert Series sponsors, Beer Capitol Distributing, Lakefront Brewery, Educators Credit Union, Town Bank and Radio Milwaukee.
