MEDIA RESOURCE GUIDE

Memorial Service for Officer Kendall Corder

Friday, July 11, 2025

Elmbrook Church | 777 S Barker Rd, Brookfield, WI

Respecting Grief, Honoring Service

To preserve the privacy, safety, and dignity of those who are grieving, Elmbrook Church does not allow media on church property for memorial services. This policy is in accordance with our longstanding guidelines and in full support of the Corder family's wishes. We are grateful for the media's role in honoring Officer Kendall Corder and ask that all members of the press respect the following protocols:

MEDIA PROTOCOLS

Media Presence On-Site:

- No media personnel, vehicles, or equipment will be permitted on Elmbrook Church property at any time before, during, or after the memorial service unless expressly invited by Elmbrook Church.
- Security will be present to ensure these boundaries are maintained.

Approved Media Location:

- Media may set up at Marx Park, located directly across the street from Elmbrook Church.
- This space provides a respectful and practical vantage point without interrupting the flow of the event or the grieving process for attendees.

Broadcast Feed Access:

- With permission from the family, and in keeping with standard officer funeral protocol, Elmbrook Church will provide a live stream of the service from inside the Worship Center.
- One approved broadcast partner will be stationed on the church roof to provide a pooled satellite feed for distribution to all media outlets.
- Media organizations wishing to access the pooled feed may contact the church in advance for connection details.

Respecting Our Church Community:

We also kindly ask that media respect all individuals on our campus, including those who are not attending the memorial service but are present to participate in other Elmbrook Church ministries, support groups, or community programs. Many people utilize our church as a place of worship, healing, and connection throughout the week. To preserve the peace and dignity of their experience, we ask that members of the media do not approach, photograph, or interview anyone on the premises. Elmbrook Church is a spiritual and communal refuge for many, and we ask that it be honored as such during this sensitive time.
